Key:	XXXXXXXX-XXXX-XXXX-XXXXXXXXXXXX
Key status:	active
License:	trial for 1 computer for 30 days
Activation date:	6/28/2013 12:01 AM
Expiration date:	7/28/2013 11:59 PM
Remaining:	23 days

Below the license details is a link for 'End User License Agreement'. A prominent information box contains the following text:

i Trial version of the application is installed
23 days remaining. After this period application functionality will be severely limited. To keep your computer protected, you should purchase a license.

Buttons for 'Activate application' and 'Purchase activation code' are located at the bottom of the information box. A red arrow points to the key field. The bottom navigation bar includes 'My profile', 'Settings', 'Support', and 'Licensing'.
